

Governor's Proclamation

WATER SAFETY MONTH

*State of Wyoming
By the Governor*

WHEREAS, swimming and aquatic-related activities play a vital role that relate to good physical and mental health, enhancing the quality of life for all people; and

WHEREAS, education is an essential role of water safety in preventing drownings and recreational water-related injuries; and

WHEREAS, contributions made by the recreational water industry, as represented by the organizations involved in the National Water Safety Month Coalition, develop safe swimming facilities, aquatic programs, home pools and spas, and related activities. Providing healthy places to recreate, learn and grow, build self-esteem, confidence and sense of self-worth contributes to the quality of life in our community; and

WHEREAS, ongoing efforts and commitments continue to educate the public on pool and spa safety issues and initiatives by the pool, spa, waterpark, recreation and parks industries; and

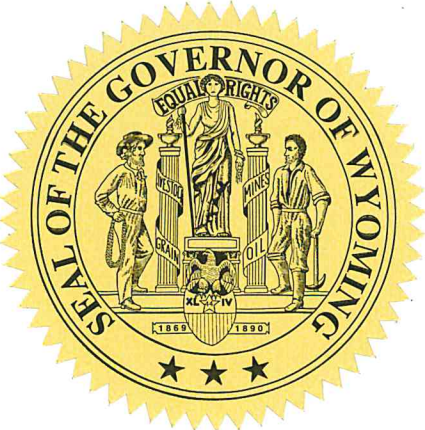

WHEREAS, communicating water safety rules and programs to families and individuals of all ages is vitally import, whether owners of private pools, users of public swimming facilities, or visitors to waterparks.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK GORDON, Governor of the State of Wyoming do hereby declare the month of May, 2025 to be in Wyoming, and urge all those in the state of Wyoming to support and promote this observance.

Water Safety Month

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Seal of the Governor of Wyoming to be affixed this 14th day of April, 2025.
